Issues for Discussion

Approved REC
Initial applications. Move the deadline for initial applications to April 1 of each year from the current January 15. deadline.

Obtain input REC report summer May
Attendance vs. ticket sales. Several bowls currently do not have a process in place to measure actual bowl game attendance, versus their reporting of actual tickets sold to the game.

Team INFO words for CONF REC
Deductions. Under the new criteria, deductions from gross receipts are no longer relevant. Conferences may want to address team awards and team entertainment in the agreements between the sponsoring agency and the participating conference.

REC
Equal Payout. The new criteria require an equal payout to the participating teams but does not address whether the sponsoring agency should be allowed to have different minimum ticket guarantees in their contractual agreements with the participating institutions and conferences. review next year

REC APPROVED
REC
Letter of Credit. The letter of credit requirement for bowls that average payouts of $1 million or less over the past three years may be tied directly to the contractual commitments between the sponsoring agency and the participating institution. Currently the participating institutions and conferences are protected up to $1.5 million or the current minimum payout of $750,000 each. develop two forms for agency & bowl

Approved REC
Conference Agreements. The contract between the sponsoring agency and the participating institution or conference should be submitted to the NCAA by April 1 or no later than the letter-of-credit due date of September 1. Approved

INFO
Houston Bowl. Conference and sponsoring agency do not agree on the value of the tickets committed in their conference agreement and subsequent payout.

INFO
Music City Bowl. The sponsoring agency implemented the new criteria for the 2002-03 season. As a result, the payout to the participating teams did not meet the 75 percent required payout. \ 75-25 rule violated*

INFO
Seattle Bowl. The 2002-03 certification fee, which was due on November 1, 2002 was received at the national office on March 31, 2003. Additionally, the participating teams have not received the contractually agreed upon payout.

REC INFO
Reporting Clarification. Audited Gross Receipts and reporting of administrative game expense due by April 1 of each year. Audited financial statements due September 1.
